

Kwanza Jones Official Bio (Short Version)

Kwanza Jones is an investor, entrepreneur, and philanthropist working at the intersection of culture, community, and capital. She is the co-founder of the Kwanza Jones & José E. Feliciano Initiative, an investment and philanthropic platform that has committed nearly $500 million to expanding access and opportunity.

Jones builds platforms that combine capital, media, and community to drive measurable impact, expand audience engagement, and support long-term growth.

She is the founder of SUPERCHARGED®, a media and platform ecosystem that produces content, experiences, and community-driven initiatives designed to activate audiences, build loyalty, and drive sustained engagement.

Through her work, she translates cultural influence into real-world activation: building communities, expanding reach, and driving impact across platforms.

Her work spans business, media, and music, where she has achieved Billboard chart success, reflecting her ability to build cultural resonance and connect with broad audiences.

Kwanza often says she has many titles but one job: to boost humans and humanity.

kwanzajones

kwanzajones.com

8605 Santa Monica Blvd. #29406 Los Angeles, CA 90069